23 Rule Questions

I play 4 players that equal 20 and I do not have a 3 or 2 on my roster, did I foul? Yes.

I play 4 players that equal 20 and I have a 3 on my roster who is not present. Do I have to play my 4 or 5 who is present? No, simply forfeit the last match. No team can force you to break the 23 rule.

When is the 23 rule actually broken? When the first rack is broken in the match the violation occurs.

After we lag and before the rack is broken my opponent realizes they will break the 23 rule. Can they stop and pick another player? Yes, and of course you can also pick another player.

The other team broke the 23 rule what do we do? Mark the violation on both score sheets and sign them.

How many points do we win for a 23 rule violation? 5 in 8-Ball; in 9-ball you receive the points your team won in the previous matches and 15 points for the match in which the 23 rule was broken and any additional matches that would have been played.

If you do not mark the violation on your score sheet, then you do not get the points. We will not mark your score sheet for you.
